We Can Do It!

COLORADO GOVERNOR'S TWENTY
The Commerce City Police Department had a Pistol Shooting program for the officers. It was called the Colorado Governor's Twenty.
There were several Commerce City Officers that were on the Pistol Team. They started competing the first of May through October.
State matches were held in many areas such as Greeley, Alamosa, Pueblo, Denver, LA Junta, Commerce City and other places.
The officer had to buy their own gun, the ammunition, and pay for their entrance fee for the match.
Regional matches were held in places like Oklahoma, New Mexico, Salt Lake City and other places throughout the season.
